Mr. Blanton Calls Meeting to Consider Postmaster At Hamlin

CONFERENCE RESPECTING POSTMASTER TO BE HELD AT HIGH SCHOOL

Below the Herald gives a reproduction of a communication from our Congressman, Hon. Thomas L. Blanton, who indicates that he will be in Hamlin this Saturday, November 23, to confer on the choice of a postmaster for this city.

Below is the communication:
Abilene, Texas.
Nov. 15, 1935.
Hon. Bowen Pope, Editor,
The Hamlin Herald,
Hamlin, Texas.

Dear Bowen:

If you are willing to do so, I would appreciate it very much if you would carry in your paper next week the enclosed notice of a conference I would like to have with my friends in Hamlin next Saturday afternoon, November 23rd, at four o'clock in the school house there, as I understand that it is available without charge for such purpose.

With kind wishes, I am,
Your friend,
THOMAS L. BLANTON.

Ray Fry was here Wednesday looking after business interests and greeting Hamlin friends. Mr. Fry has recently opened a Variety Store in Munday and he reports business very satisfactory. While in town he called at the Herald office to renew his subscription to the Hamlin Herald. "Thanks a lot, Ray."

Mrs. Preston Phenix returned home Sunday after a two weeks visit with relatives in Stanton.

LITTLE LIGHTS ON LIVING

By MARIA LEONARD
Dean of Women, University of Illinois
© Western Newspaper Union.

THE FAR-VIEW

PERSPECTIVE is getting the right slant on things whether they be pictures or circumstances. Any work of art or situation in life is not clear if out of perspective. To an artist perspective is the key to success—without it he is no artist. So with us, in this art of living, if we lose perspective, we lose the true purpose of life.

The far-view, or perspective, is a good habit to cultivate every day. When looking out of the window of a fast moving train, the near view causes the fence posts and corn stalks to dance by in one dizzy whirl, which ceases when we take the far-view to the calm hills and peaceful horizon. Just so, with our petty problems and worries, which will be gone in a week from now.

For the want of the far-view, many persons of our own day have lost their perspective in money matters. I remember as a child my father telling of a miserly old man—a veritable Silas Marner—who got his dollars so close to his eyes, he shut out the sunlight. Even yet do I mentally see two silver dollars where his spectacles were. Poor old man—he lost his perspective.

Some business men are working harder and faster as the years roll on, hoping to accumulate enough to "lay off" sometime in large luxurious homes and say within themselves, "my soul, take thine ease." What happens? About that time health breaks and their savings go largely to the hospital.

From a Chicago office on the twenty-fifth floor, the view of Lake Michigan was superb. A rising young editor sat with his back to the view, facing day in and day out, a flat tan-painted wall. "Look what's behind you," I said to him one day, looking out of the window. "I haven't time," he said gruffly. "You've lost your perspective at far too young an age," I remarked.

Many students come for counsel asking: "What course shall I pursue? Shall I take a job now, if offered, or finish my last year of university work?" My answer is: "Get the far-view. Do now what ten years from now you will wish you had done. Be willing to sacrifice any immediate end for the larger future good." Perhaps in our student days we too were mentally near-sighted, failing to fit each day's task into our life's plan, perhaps emphasizing credits rather than knowledge, and knowledge more than wisdom. In later years, perhaps spiritually near-sighted, we still forget the far-view of how we are daily growing old. Because of a too near view of this life many have missed the life eternal.

HON. THOMAS L. BLANTON

CONFERENCE RESPECTING POSTMASTERSHIP

I request that all of my friends and supporters who live within one mile of the post office in Hamlin, and all applicants for the postmastership who supported me in the Primaries of 1932 and 1934, meet me in conference on next Saturday afternoon, November 23rd, at four o'clock in the school house there so that I may have their advice and suggestions regarding the appointment of a new postmaster there."

THOMAS L. BLANTON,
Congressman.

The above needs no comment. The postoffice in any community in the United States is one of the most important departments of our government, and in Hamlin, the usual keen interest will be taken. Every citizen should desire the most conscientious and efficient person available to hold our office.

The day, the hour and place is for each and everyone to know, as is expressed in Mr. Blanton's letter.

REV. LONGINO RETURNED TO HAMLIN

The Herald voices the feelings of all people of Hamlin who have had the pleasure of knowing Rev. Hugh A. Longino, in his first year as pastor of the Hamlin Methodist Church, in saying that we are happy to know that the Conference has sent him again to this place. He and his wife have made a host of friends here and we predict that the longer they are in Hamlin, the more fully will we realize their true worth as church leaders and citizens.

ART EXHIBIT COMING SOON

During the week from December 2nd to the 8th, the Hamlin High School department will sponsor an art exhibit in the auditorium of the High School Building. This exhibit, to be brought from Oklahoma City, will include one hundred and fifty good reproductions of the best known painting that has ever been done. Among these painting will be the works of the old European Masters whose works have been recognized as the highest type of cultural art throughout the world by critics. There, too, will be included in this collection the more recent painting done by American artists.

This exhibition will be brought to Hamlin for two definite purposes. The first purpose is to encourage the people to appreciate art. We are sure that those who attend will be inspired and will have a deeper regard for paintings than you did have before viewing the collection. The second reason for bringing the collection here is to raise money to buy pictures for the High School. Until now those in charge have neglected the fact that there should be pictures in the school. Now, we plan to place pictures in every room of the High School. In order to do this we must have the co-operation of the people of Hamlin. We are not prepared for a disappointment at this time so we are expecting a tremendous response from them.

There will be two nights set aside during the week for parents and they are especially invited to attend both nights. Mr. Cox will give several lectures on the subject of art during the week and we are sure they will be enjoyed greatly.

The admission will be very small and the tickets may be purchased from the High School students. There will be a prize awarded to the boy or girl selling the most tickets, so we think it would be advisable for everyone to take part. We especially wish to extend to the people of Hamlin a cordial invitation to attend.

—COMMITTEE.

POULTRY SHOW SOON AT ANSON

ANSON, Texas, Nov. 15.—Jones County's second annual poultry show will be held in Anson Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Dec. 12, 13 and 14, it was announced this week.

The first poultry show, since about ten years ago, was held at Anson in March of this year. Much interest was shown by fowl enthusiasts who viewed the 185 entries. Bird owners, utility and fancy breeders, came from a large area to exhibit chickens of the highest types and classes for the first show and many more entrants are expected for the second event.

J. W. Pritchett, of Corinth, experienced poultryman, who judges the Merkel show, will again be the judge at Anson. Roy Edmonds will also again serve as secretary-treasurer.

Entry fees will be: Singles, twenty-five cents; pens, one dollar; and trio of Bantams, seventy-five cents. Premiums will be paid on all standard varieties for first, second, and third places. Fourth and fifth places will receive ribbons.

The first day of the show will be given to entries and arrangements, the second day to judging and the third day, Saturday, to general exhibition, awarding of prizes and the auction sale. On Friday morning County Judge Omar Burleson will deliver the welcome address. Jim Lee Gordon, County Sheriff, will preside as auctioneer Saturday afternoon.

WILLIAM A. WEBB

DALLAS, Texas, Nov. 20.—When William A. Webb, newly appointed manager of the Texas Centennial Exposition which centers in Dallas next year, took over his new task, he brought to it an understanding of the Exposition's national scope and problems.

An internationally known railroad executive, his experience has been broad and varied—the exact type needed for his present post.

He started as a messenger boy for the Santa Fe in Colorado Springs, when he was twelve, was assistant to the president of the Colorado & Southern in Denver, general manager of the Texas Central at Waco, operating vice president of the M. K. & T. from 1911 to 1919, a member of the U. S. Railroad Ward Board No. 1 in Washington, D. C., and for 10 years railroad advisor to the Australian Government under a recommendation from the U. S. Department of State.

DR. SCARBOROUGH PREACHED AT BAPTIST CHURCH

Dr. L. R. Scarborough, president of the Baptist Seminary in Fort Worth, preached at the First Baptist Church last Sunday evening. Dr. Scarborough was making a tour of several towns of this section, and Hamlin was very fortunate to be included in his itinerary. He is one of the great leaders of the Baptist denomination, a preacher who presents God's message with clear simplicity and inspirational power.

Several years ago Dr. Scarborough was pastor of the First Baptist Church of Abilene, and it was from this church he was called to fill the Chair of Evangelism, in the Baptist Seminary, and later became president of this great institution.

Dr. Scarborough was accompanied by his wife, and on their return to Fort Worth they visited relatives in Abilene.

PWA Project for Hamlin Starts Monday Morning, Involving $19,000

Soon this community will see how the PWA plan of making work for mental expenditure of $12,250.00 and the City $6,989.00, making a total of $19,239.00.

The project calls for 27 common laborers, 3 intermediate workers and 2 skilled. The time limit on this project is set at NINE months. The men to do this work will be taken from the ones on the relief rolls of last spring, who were classed as eligible. This we understand will mean that the local authorities will have nothing to do with who works, when they work and how long they work.

Hamlin has her applications in for other projects. One is for the improvement of streets and the other for the raising of the dam of the Lower Lake. These two projects have been approved and may be started soon or maybe late and perhaps not at all.

Hamlin also has in an application for government funds to help construct a dam across Dry California Creek (Whoopie! Whoopie!). If this dam project should ever go through it will mean more to Hamlin than anything ever thought of here. However, it would perhaps mean a vote of bonds to meet the government's requirements.

DODGE CARS SHOW IMPROVEMENTS

Perhaps the oldest automobile salesman in Hamlin, at least in point of time, is John Green. He has boosted every make of car sold in this part of Texas, sometime during his experience with cars.

Last spring he began with the Dodge Car in Hamlin, as a sub-salesman for the agency out of Anson, but recently he got out on his own, using space for display in the building with the W. L. Boyd Cotton Office, and these days wherever you see John Green you may see him explaining "Dodge."

The Herald has been expecting one of the new Dodge pictures to decorate the pages of the paper, but so far their advertising agency has failed to ask the local paper to carry "Dodge Information." But an inspection of the new models of the Dodge now on display show that this make of car is not lagging behind in the progress of modernization. One of the several important improvements over the 1935 model is the top. It is not the solid turret top, yet it has features approaching the "turret" till it almost looks solid. Here is an expansion seam between the long center panel of the metal top and sides, which John claims makes for long wear, and strength.

Mr. Green does not make much "fuss" about his salesmanship and his make of car, for perhaps he thinks it is not necessary, or that maybe he has said so much about other cars that someone might call his hand. Anyway every automobile salesman realizes that when John Green gets to working on a "prospect" there is plenty of competition. John goes on the idea that a pretty automobile can speak stronger than words.

METHODIST CHURCH

Having been reassigned to this work for another year, we are returning with a full realization of the responsibilities as well as opportunities. Certainly a better piece of work should be done this year than last since we are more familiar with the field. A hearty welcome has been extended us and that helps a lot. A number of our friends of other denominations have made us glad with their hearty greeting. After all we are just human and appreciate friendship and the good will of our fellow man. David found it so, and expressed himself in the 133rd Psalm by declaring that "There the Lord commanded the blessing, even life for evermore." We are happy to be back and covet your prayers that only the good may prosper and the evil be over ruled.

The services will continue at the same hours as customary. The subject for Sunday, 11:00 A. M. will be, "Life by Appropriation." I beg of you to hear this message. It is the introduction to the work we hope to accomplish before the terminus of this Conference year. The evening services will be held at 7:30 and the leagues just preceding.

I think nothing would afford us quite so much joy and encouragement as to have the continued fine spirit of understanding and Christian fellowship as of last year. I shall give myself unstintedly to the work and covet your co-operation. Let us make the first Sabbath Day's worship one that will give us a good start for those that may follow during the year.

H. A. LONGINO, Pastor.

WHAT IS EDUCATION?

Education teaches good citizenship, loyalty, and ethical living.

An educated man assumes his responsibility of faithful citizenship, including the duty of helping to form righteous public sentiment; he appreciates the ethical character as a means of harmonizing his own life with the well-being of his fellows. An educated man is one who can fit into any situation comfortably.

The educated man is intelligently informed as to the political abilities of the candidates for office, realizing that he owes it to himself and civilization to use his best judgment in voting for the men who will control governmental affairs.

Education impresses upon man the power of co-operation—this increased realization makes him loyal. Lincoln once said, "A house divided against itself cannot stand." He, as an educated man, knew the power of unity and patriotism. Education is, itself, a practice of ethical living.

Education is the power by which one can maintain himself in a useful vocation with a fair prospect of growth and advancement. Education is the use of diplomacy in relations with one's associates.

Education means a more scientific, a more certain, and a less complex method of obtaining food, clothing, and shelter—which is our sole purpose here on earth with the exception that everything within human power should be done to better the conditions of mankind by material and moral support.

Mother, I can't Study—My head hurts!

As a usual thing, he is "such a regular guy." He comes home from school full of pep and energy. Of course you want him that way always. But are you protecting his health and safety during the few short months of winter when he must spend his evenings indoors?

That uncomfortable "stuffy" feeling . . . dullness . . . lowered vitality . . . headache—these are some of nature's ways of complaining against improper heating and insufficient ventilation. These are the warning signals that America's Public Health Enemy Number One, the common cold germ, has found another fertile field in which to attack. For your health's sake and that of your loved ones do not wait for these definite signs of warning that the air indoors has become stale. Keep the air you breathe constantly purified with fresh oxygen through adequate ventilation in every room in the house.

Without oxygen man cannot live. Without oxygen, fuel cannot burn. Therefore, if your family "huddles" in one or two rooms around an open flame heater during cold weather with the doors and windows tightly closed, you are violating all the rules of nature, good health and good heating. Sooner or later the occupants of the room and the burning fuel reduce the oxygen content to the point where the room air becomes stale. Without adequate ventilation and circulation the air indoors may become as foul and unhealthy as that of the tenement slums of large cities, even though your home may be the most beautiful in the neighborhood.

A simple and easy method of providing a constant circulation of fresh air is found by opening a window in each room a few inches from the top and bottom. Connecting doors left open between adjoining rooms when the entire house is adequately heated provide a natural circulation of pure warm air from one room to another. Incidentally, fresh, pure air is easier and more economical to heat than "stale" air.

Guard the health of your loved ones with adequate heat and proper ventilation of pure air in every room in the house.

. . . Community Natural Gas Co.

Tune in each Thursday night at 6:30, WFAA-WBAP, for vital facts to help you guard your family against the common cold germ.

Beware The Cough

From a common cold

That Hangs On

No matter how many medicines you have tried for your cough, chest cold or bronchial irritation, you can get relief now with Creomulsion. Creomulsion not only contains the soothing elements common to many remedies; such as, Syrup of White Pine Compound with Tar, fluid extract of Licorice Root, fluid extract of Ipecac for its powerful phlegm loosening effect, fluid extract of Cascara for its mild laxative effect and, most important of all, Beechwood Creosote is perfectly blended with all of these to reach the source of the trouble from the inside. Creomulsion can be taken frequently and continuously by adults and children with remarkable results.

Thousands of doctors use Creomulsion in their own families as well as in their practice knowing how Creomulsion aids nature to soothe the inflamed membranes and heal the irritated tissues as the germ-laden phlegm is loosened and expelled. Druggists also know the effectiveness of Beechwood Creosote and they rank Creomulsion top for coughs because you get a real dose of Creosote in Creomulsion, emulsified so that it is palatable, digestible and potent for going to the very seat of the trouble.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of coughs, chest colds and bronchial irritations and especially those stubborn ones that start with a common cold and hang on for dreadful days and nights thereafter. Even if other remedies have failed, your druggist is authorized to guarantee Creomulsion and to refund every cent of your money if you are not satisfied with results from the very first bottle. Don't worry through another sleepless night—phone or go get a bottle of Creomulsion right now. (Adv.)

For Bad Feeling Due to Constipation

Get rid of constipation by taking Black-Draught as soon as you notice that bowel activity has slowed up or you begin to feel sluggish. Thousands prefer Black-Draught for the refreshing relief it has brought them. Mrs. Ray Mullins, of Lafa, Ark., writes: "My husband and I both take Theford's Black-Draught and find it splendid for constipation, biliousness, and the disagreeable, aching, tired feeling that comes from this condition." With reference to Syrup of Black-Draught, which this mother gives her children, she says: "They like the taste and it gave such good results."

SCHOOL NEWS

SOPHOMORE REPORT

Sophomores greet each other with smiles these days. This is to signify that the will stick together through rain or shine. After their failure to place the Sophomore Queen on the throne of the school, the Sophomores were a little glum but they are snapping out of it now which proves that you can't keep a gloom down...

The Sophomores plan to make money to buy some new books for the school library. Sticking to their motto, "We'll Root 'em All Out Bye and Bye," one hundred per cent of the Sophomores are out to do the job right.

The Sophomores did not have a class meeting this week but a meeting will be held at the regular meeting place.

THE LATIN CLUB'S

FAREWELL MEETING

A chapter from the life of the Romans supplied the members of the Latin club with a very interesting topic for discussion, when they met last Monday evening for the second meeting this year.

M. Y. Wilson opened the program by talking on the powers which the head of a Roman family exercised over each individual of the household. A general discussion followed wherein all questions were settled and each person expressed their thankfulness, either openly or secretly, for living in this modern time. Since the management of these families was so different from that of our own, the talk was enjoyed by everyone who was present.

Everyone regrets that these club meetings will end with the next meeting. Next Wednesday night the club members will assemble at the home of Bob Cluny and there a two-hour program will be presented. Naturally we feel as if this meeting will be filled with the aroma of Thanksgiving since the holidays follow. And the hearts of our Latin students will be filled with remorseless until we resume the activities of the club after the first of the year.

SENIOR REPORT

In assembly Wednesday morning, the Seniors presented their second program of the year. The program consisted of numbers by a group of Senior boys and girls, a short play, an address by a Senior boy, and two songs by the Senior boys' quartet. The Seniors will also have a girls' quartet which our audience will have the privilege of hearing in the near future.

We must have a monopoly on the number two for we planned our second entertainment of the year. It is to be a party given by the "Whirlwinds" to the "Cyclones" on Thursday night at the school building. As you will remember, the "Cyclones" were victorious in the

JONES CO. CLUBS

PERFECT ORGANIZATION

The Federated Club of Jones Co. met in the County Court House on Nov. 16th, with nine clubs represented. The constitution and by-laws were read, amended, and approved.

Mrs. Rutherford of Stamford, offered her resignation as recording secretary feeling that this office should be filled by someone living in the same town as that in which the president lives. Mrs. Gilbert Smith of Anson, was elected to fill her place. Mrs. C. A. Struve of Anson, was chosen club counselor.

The members of the different clubs represented were introduced. Much enthusiasm was manifested over plans for the future work of the club, as they were brought before the house. For instance, "Let's have a County Fair in 1936" was mentioned then echoed through the whole room. Ways and means were discussed with the realization in mind that only by much talk could the wheels be put in motion for it will take the back-shoulder business men of our towns to make the Fair a reality.

As 1936 is our Centennial year, attractive entrances to our towns was emphasized. Each delegate was instructed to urge her home club to plan and be responsible for a community flower bed. Sow our native blue bonnet seeds, and create a reverence for our native mesquite.

Our State Highway engineers will be a great assistance in the matter of highway beautification.

The next meeting of the Federation will be held in the Court House in Anson the third Saturday in January.

New York's Planetarium

Man-Made Heavens Perform for the Spectator

The fourth planetarium in the United States, the $300,000 Hayden Planetarium, was officially opened at the American Museum of Natural History, New York, says The Literary Digest. The $120,000 instrument, the gift of Charles Hayden, of Hayden, Stone & Company, bankers, is situated in the center of a great hemispherical hall.

Dumb-bell in shape, each metal ball studded with glass eyes, the projection machine casts on equatorial and universal mountings throwing out rays of light which transform the domed ceiling into a panorama of the heavens. Stars, sun, moon, planets, and other heavenly bodies move across the man-made sky in their seasonal cycles in whatever century the operator desires.

"Playing" the Planetarium

The man who operates it performs an uncanny task. He is the lecturer, standing in a kind of darkened pulpit, explaining the heavenly bodies in their motions as the giant machine goes through its tricks at his prompting.

Before him in the darkness is a control-panel approaching in bewildering intricacy the keyboard of a pipe-organ. On it are thirty-nine switches, twelve rheostats, and ten push-buttons.

With the switches the lecturer lights up the stars, sun, moon, and planets. With the rheostats he dims the sun, blanks out the twilight, brings daylight into the auditorium blazing in all its glory. With the push-buttons he casts temporarily an image of the celestial equator on the heavens, sets the names of the constellations dancing amid the stars, and rings for help from outside if something should go wrong. Between times, he picks up a special flashlight and casts an arrow on the skies, pointing out objects with which his lecture deals.

About twenty persons in America are now professional planetarium-lecturers. Possibly a dozen non-professionals also can "play" the planetarium on occasion.

This new art of operating such a mechanism, and synchronizing with it a lecture, was founded substantially by a broad-shouldered, Kansas-born athletic astronomer, Dr. Philip Fox, formerly Professor of Astronomy at Northwestern University, now Director of the Adler Planetarium in Chicago.

LITTLE LIGHTS ON LIVING

By MARIA LEONARD
Dean of Women, University of Illinois
© Western Newspaper Union.

SYMMETRY IN LIVING

THERE are two symmetries in life which each individual must master, if he would adapt himself to the fine art of fine living. The first one lies within himself, which gives him perfect equilibrium of spirit. This comes from a deep assurance and certainty that his life is built securely on the fundamentals of right living.

I regret for our youth today, that our older generation has failed to pass on to them this sense of security and beauty of symmetry in our modern expressions of living, such as our unexplainable modern art, some of our dissonant music, and our silver screen distortions of sex, love, and home life. Our barren current literature, too, has had its part in taking away what little security might be left to youth by featuring such phrases as "Time of Great Moral Uncertainty," "Morals in a Day of Relativity," "The Changing Moral Trend," and "An Unmoored Age and the New Morality." Mathew Arnold said—"Culture is contact with the best that has been thought and said."

The love of beauty in the ancient Greeks caused their time to be called the Classic age, because it has endured throughout the ages. Standing on the Acropolis one full moon night, I say the silvered Parthenon, I should rather say I felt it in my heart. That was only symmetry in cold stone, how far greater when found in human life. Plato's matchless words bespeak it thus: "Culture is that thing that brings to body and soul all the beauty, all the perfection of which they are capable."

Four avenues we have for self-realization, which must precede our self-expression, if we would have symmetry in living. They are, "work, play, emotional control and spiritual nutrition." Our inner symmetry must balance all of these. If we be weak in any one, we are only as strong as our weakest point. It is not what we do but what we are that brings us to our highest level. "We are so busy living, that we haven't time to be," and the symmetry of life is found in personality. The second of the two necessary symmetries of fine living lies with the world outside. Enrichment of life is useful only when shared, then others catch its radiance. This must be passed on to youth if our race is to continue to improve, for it isn't "What life is made of, but what life is made for," that counts. Eternal love of beauty that comes from the depth of a human heart to the world outside, brings symmetry in living.

Not so long ago, not so far from Hamlin a merchant was so "tite" that he would not even "bank" his money—and to spend a dime to advertise his store, his town and his community—no sir! But one night he took $500 up to the house for "safe keeping." He dumped it into a waste basket and the next morning the old chap let his wife get up first and start the fires. The $500 in 5's and 10's made good kindling and thus the merchant "saved" and sorrowed.

After listening to some people's chatter you begin to wonder if ears are not more of a liability than an asset.

YOUR CHILD AND THE SCHOOL

By Dr. ALLEN G. IRELAND
Director, Physical and Health Education
New Jersey State Department of Public Instruction

Summer Heat

Too many cautions cannot be printed against sunburn. No matter how much is said or written, no matter what one's past experience may have been, the majority of people show unreasonable haste in acquiring a sunburn.

"I'm going to be tanned like an Indian," they say, forgetting that the Indian's red-brown skin is natural.

Children are in danger, because they don't know there is any danger. In the summer, they have all day for play. The release from school is tempting, with so many things to do. If parents aren't mindful and watching, the first day or two in the summer sun may bring a serious burn. Then a week of suffering, often confined to bed.

And it isn't always as simple as that. Burn from the sun is no different from any burn. It isn't confined to a sore skin. Poisons, or body toxins, are formed. The child may be feverish and nauseated. In attempting to throw off the poisons, the kidneys may be injured. Sometimes severe prostration results.

In all cases of sunburn, it is advisable to place a child in a physician's care. Wise treatment will prevent the complications. But the greatest wisdom is shown at the beginning. Take the sunburn gradually, a little each day. Give the skin a chance to tan painlessly.

Are you making your child's life a nightmare by insisting on regular promotion at school? Don't miss Dr. Ireland's next article.

Liquor Flowing Legally Again In Big Old Texas

Repeal is complete. Texas people have brought to a full consummation the repeal of the prohibition amendment and its Dean Law.

The year 1935 will go down in history as the year the Constitution was again amended to do away with another amendment that sought to prevent liquor from being sold in this state.

The recent called session of the Legislature sought to set up some kind of sales machinery to permit liquors to be sold without having them sold in a saloon. The August amendment has at last been "vitalized," and once again as perhaps never before will intoxicating drinks flow in this state.

By provisions of the last amendment, parts of the state are automatically dry, and parts wet. Provisions are made for all of it to be wet or dry. The newest law just going into effect, really makes it ALL wet, regardless of how dry communities may vote.

Picking out some of the peculiarities of the new liquor laws we find:

It is estimated that the new taxes on liquor will amount to $10,000 per day, and that every day between Thanksgiving and Christmas the new taxes on drinks may amount to $15,000 per day. What will a drink and a half cost?

A summary of the provisions show that liquor must be in packages, and the size and shape of the package is not material. It may be in wet bottle, about the size of your thumb, or in a keg or bucket, just so it is "bound" and stamped. You buy it and hike out to car or corner and there drink it. The law does not tell you how far away from the purchase place you may drink.

One-fourth of the tax on liquors will go into the school fund, and the remaining three-fourths will go into the Old Age Pension fund.

Perhaps all hotels in wet territory will take out license to sell package whiskey so it can be sent to the customers' rooms.

Hotels may also have cocktail bars, where beer and wines may be sold, but the wine shop can not be in the same location as the whiskey package shop.

Rail road dining cars can sell liquor in wet counties or territory. This may require a new set up of "toots and signals" from the engineer to give warning that the train is approaching or leaving wet or dry territory. There is nothing said about it being against a law as to what kind of territory the whiskey may be emptied from the "package" into the esophagus. The only thing the seller has to guard against is the dringing of it within his place of business. In other words the brass rail will not be used legally to hold your toes upon while you gurge.

If you do not find the brand you prefer in Texas, then you may "import" in some manner, as much as a quart at a time.

Every commercial handler of liquors will be licensed. The license for sale of sealed packages of liquors will forfeit, if they let drinks be taken from the packages on the premises, and if beer and wine sellers have sealed liquor packages on their premises, their license will be cancelled.

If a fellow wants to get a license to sell whiskey, it is to be denied him if he uses alcohol to excess or habit forming drugs, or if he has been convicted of violating a liquor law or if he has been provided with funds from a liquor manufacturer or wholesaler. You must have been in Texas for three years too. There cannot be any chain package stores above five in number. A bond from $1000 to $25,000 must be posted by every person holding a license, as a guarantee of obedience to liquor laws and rules.

Wholesalers are responsible for the payment of the excise tax. Here is where the chemist comes in. Let him figure how strong it is.

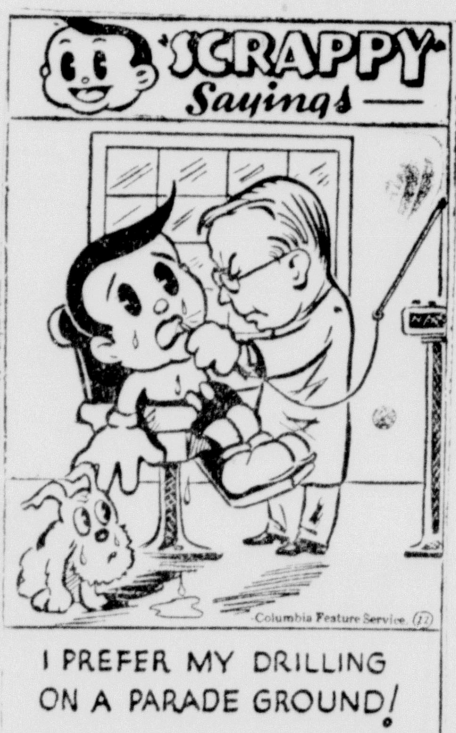

Tax of Spirituous liquor 80c gallon. Wine up to 14 per cent, 2 cents. Wine up to 24 per cent, 5 cents. Wine from 24 to 50 per cent 50 cents a gallon; sparkling wine 25 cents; malt up to 4 per cent 15 cts.; beer of 4 per cent or less, $1.24 a barrel.

Fees paid for license will be divided: State gets half, County a fourth, and the city a fourth. Brewers, distillers and rectifiers will each pay as much as $2,000 a year. Wholesalers $2,500; wine and beer wholesalers $250; agents, doctors and carriers $5.00 each and druggists $50.00, medicinal use.

The above is about as clear as mud and a statement of the situation as near as can be had, for "all we know is what we read in the papers." It is plain that it is going to be an easy matter to get any kind of whiskey, anywhere, any time, in any quantity and take it, drink it, or use it in any manner one may wish. It is to be seen how it works out. It now appears that dry territory will be useless. Fast automobiles and good roads do away with boundary lines. The more places to sell liquor, the more tax, and the less travel to get it, and the more drunks. It might be that Texas can drink herself to prosperity. That remains to be seen.

It may be that enough liquor "will be drunk" to defray all the old age pensions cost and most of the public schools—it may be that property taxes can be done away with entirely when the drinking public see that a sales tax on liquor will spread over so much ground. Wonder if anyone will argue that just because the poorest fellow is so poor, he should not have to pay a sales tax on his liquor? It is just about as reasonable for one to pay a sales tax on a cocoa bottle as the gallon of whiskey. Let's put a sales tax on every thing we drink except water and milk, and stop taxing property.

Finally let's get our minds ready for seeing all kinds of little doo-fangled containers lying around in corners, in alleys, in toilets, and dark holes. Don't take offense at anything any more.

4. Have Year-'round Refrigeration.

Tests recently made over the country show the necessity for year 'round refrigeration. The Government Weather Bureau reports show that there are only nineteen days in the average winter, when temperatures remain throughout the day at "safety zone temperatures"—below 50 degrees and above 32 degrees.

Natural refrigeration is not dependable. It is always summer in the kitchen. Tests in various cities during the winter season, show an average temperature of 76 degrees (26 degrees above the danger-line).

Electric refrigeration is dependable. It makes possible your planned program of saving.

My Favorite Recipes

Frances Lee Barton says:

HERE, at last, is the perfect, painless way to induce prune juice into the interiors of your young ones. Not only is it painless... it's gorgeous, and youngsters of all ages (including your husband) will adore it. Just listen to this combination... orange-flavored gelatin, prune juice, lemon juice, and maraschino! And you can make it almost as fast as they can eat it. Incidentally this dessert is so easy to make that when my oldest boy gave a party for his Scout Troop I let him make it himself... he felt terribly important!

Amber Russet

1 package orange-flavored gelatin; 1½ cups warm prune juice; 4 tablespoons sugar; dash of salt; juice of 1 lemon and maraschino cherry juice to make ½ cup. Dissolve gelatin in warm prune juice. Add sugar, salt, and fruit juices. Turn into individual molds. Chill until firm. Unmold. Serve with whipped cream, if desired. Serves 4.

Note: If desired, lemon juice may be omitted and amount of prune juice increased from 1½ cups to 1¾ cups.

"I had regular shaking spells from nervousness," writes Mrs. Cora Sanders, of Paragould, Ark. "I was all run-down and cramped at my time until I would have to go to bed. After my first bottle of Cardui, I was better. I kept taking Cardui and soon I was all right. The shaking quitted and I did not cramp. I felt world better. I gave Cardui to my daughter who was in about the same condition and she was soon all right."

THE IMPROVED streamlining of the front end of the Ford V-8 for 1936 is well illustrated by this camera shot. Note the horn set into the fender apron behind a chromium grille and the way the graceful contour of the fender is carried to the edge of the new radiator grille. A glimpse of the new hood louvers is caught behind the headlamp. The V-8 insignia on the prow of the car is of new design.

Little David, while at a neighbor's, was given a piece of bread and butter and he politely said: "Thank you."

"That's right, David," said the lady. "I like to hear little boys say 'Thank you!'"

"Well," added David, "if you want to hear me say it again you might put some jam or jelly on it."

Always remember that it's impossible to quarrel with a man or woman who won't answer back.

BOY SCOUTS

The Boy Scouts of Hamlin met last Friday, November 15, with a large number present. The meeting was opened with the regular ceremony after which we discussed a treasure hunt for Thanksgiving.

Later, during the meeting, the assistant Scoutmaster gave a pep talk. Games were then played; afterwards we practiced on several pyramids for speed. The meeting closed with the Scout benediction.

Thursday night the Patrol leaders meet to plan the next Scout meeting. The treasure hunt was discussed and it was decided to call it off. Plans were made to pass several merit badges. At 7:45 the meeting was closed.

Every Scout is expected to be present next Friday.

Hooray! Food Again!
Amarillo Woman Says.

"Hurray for Gordon's Compound!" said Mrs. A. M. Weilenman, popular young Amarillo matron, 300

Polk St. "For four years I had been having to eat only light foods, easily digested. My stomach was sour and acid all the time, with much gas. I was constipated, dull, felt tired all the time, had spells of dizziness, headaches and back-aches. A friend of mine started me using Gordon's Compound. In 3 or 4 days my acid, upset stomach was relieved. Then my sister started taking Gordon's and found it did wonders for her."

A rural school teacher was cashing her monthly check at the bank. The teller apologized for the filthy condition of some of the bills he handed her, saying: "I hope you're not afraid of microbes."

"Not a bit," the school teacher replied. "I'm sure no microbe could live on my salary."

ONE MILLION
FORD V-8 CARS
AND TRUCKS
IN TEN MONTHS

ON OCTOBER 31 of last year, Henry Ford announced his intention to build a million Ford V-8s in 1935. We are pleased to report that this goal was reached in exactly ten months instead of a full year.

One million cars and trucks is an impressive total. But figures by themselves mean nothing. It is what they represent that counts. Selling a V-8 at a low price has brought a new kind of automobile within reach of the people. Producing it has provided steady work for hundreds of thousands of men in the Ford plants, in associated industries and on the farm.

These million Ford V-8 cars and trucks have helped to make things better all around. In the first ten months of 1935 the Ford Motor Company paid out, in the United States alone, $140,119,326.00 in wages and $523,111,389.00 for materials.

THE NEW FORD V-8 FOR 1936 IS NOW ON DISPLAY. THE CAR THAT LED ALL OTHERS IN 1935 HAS BEEN MADE STILL BETTER FOR THE NEW YEAR
